Old News:

Sponsorship board is in the process of being put together Applied Graphics in Cody will be printing and cutting out vinyl for the board. Jenni Rosencrance and Jessica Carter will put the board together once everything is ready.

Congrats to the snowmobile club for winning 2nd place in the Cody Christmas Parade. There was a $50.00 prize for 2nd place. A huge thank you to the all the youth volunteers and others that came to help decorate the float to make it a success.

The club discussed the possibility of having the safety Shelter all organized and set up on an earlier date next season, possibly before snow flies hopefully making the process easier on everyone helping.

Riders beware of the few new hazards on the Beartooths due to the road construction that was in process before winter started.

Avalanche training is this Jan. 5th and 6th all are welcome to attend. Friday night will be classroom training at Mountain Valley Motorsports starting at 6:30 PM. Saturday is field training on the mountain. It will start at 10:00 AM everyone is meeting at the Beartooth Safety Shelter.

The awards dinner venue is still under discussion. There was a conversation of moving the event to the Cody Golf course the club will finalize the location and times at the January meeting.

New News

There were a few changes in board positions due to a member retiring: Brenda Miller and Kendal Baerg were both voted in to fill the open positions by the club.

The board discussed donating funds to Bill Messick who's family lost their home to a fire. Bill and his family have been involved with the snowmobile industry for years. The club motioned to give a donation of $500.00 to help Bill and his family through these hard times. Ed Higbie motioned the proposal for the donation of $500.00 and Jessica Carter 2nd the motion. The motioned was passed by the club.
